Welcome to Fujirebio Diagnostics AB customers!

Since January 2017 Fujirebio Diagnostics AB (headquarters in Sweden) and Fujirebio Europe NV and affiliates (headquarters in Belgium) share the same website, www.fujirebio-europe.com.

Fujirebio Diagnostics customers can continue to use the usual address www.fdab.com but this address now points to the shared website where you will find all the usual products, instruments, product documentations, events and news.

To download regulatory product documentation (Safety Data Sheets, IFUs, ...) you will need to sign up once for an eServices account. This takes only a few minutes and allows you to access all the required documentation immediately.

CSF CAMPAIGN

Our CSF educational video is now available in five languages

We continue to develop the communication campaign we launched June 2016 in order to help clinicians and healthcare workers explain the interest of early testing for Alzheimer's disease through IVD with the help of CSF biomarkers. The campaign video is now available in English, French, Spanish, German and Italian.

Seasonal Greetings for 2017

We would like to thank you for following Fujirebio in 2016. This was a rich and eventful year for our company with the launch of several new, differentiating products and the entry of the LUMIPULSE G series in brand new territories. We would like to wish you a successful 2017 with this modest video.
